

Winter Hill - Thuja Summary

www.winterhill.com.au

Botanical Name	Thuja Plicata	Thuja Plicata Fastigiata	Thuja Plicata Green Patch	Thuja Plicata Can Can	Thuja Plicata Zebrina	Thuja Occidentalis Smaragd
Common Name	Western Red Cedar	Thuja Upright	Cedar Green Patch	Thuja Can Can	Thuja Zebrina	Smaragd
General Info	Also known as 'Wintergreen'. Dense/compact aromatic foliage. Green/yellow cones are slender and up to 18mm in length. Male red/purple pollen cones 3-4mm long shed yellow pollen in spring.	Upright compact and dense foliage that prunes well	Upright compact tree with dense aromatic foliage	Slightly aromatic very dense foliage	Slightly aromatic compact/dense feathery foliage. Conical but very broad at the base. 'Zebrina' is a variegated form of Western Red Cedar.	Slightly aromatic compact/dense foliage. Low maintenance. Urn-shaped cones are slender, yellow-green ripening brown and 10-15mm long.
Growth Speed	Moderate	Moderate: 5m in first 10 years	Moderate: 5m in first 10 years	Slow to moderate: 2.5m tall and 2m wide in first 10 years	Moderate: 4m in 10 years	Slow
Colour	Deep green with bronze overtones in winter	Dark green	Dark green	White tips on a dark green foliage	Green & gold striped	Bright Green
Hedge / Screen	x	x	x	x	x	x
Drought Hardy	x	x	x	x	x	-
Frost Hardy	x	x	x	x	x	x
Pots	x	x	x	x	-	x
Coastal	-	x	x	-	-	x
Full/Part Sun	x	x	x	x	x	x
Wind Hardy	x	x	x	x	x	x

To determine the growth speed use the following key as a general guide. Slow: <0.3m per year Moderate: 0.3m - 0.7m per year Fast: > 0.7m per year